About us

We are Carol and Antonio, a couple in everyday life and at work. We met in 2014 in Naxos, Greece. Both photographers, Carol specialized in Food & Portrait photography and Antonio specialized in landscape and Naturalistic photography.

In 2018 we founded Nisida Studio Photography. A photography studio who thinks outside the box! In fact, our idea and mission is to look beyond. We have created a dedicated area: We are Destinalional Photographer!

A photograph of two women sitting on a stone ledge, looking out over a large lake and forested hills. The woman on the left is wearing a red jumpsuit and sunglasses, while the woman on the right is wearing a red and white striped shirt and red sneakers. The background shows a vast lake and distant hills under a clear sky.

Destination Adventure Elopements anywhere in the world

The term "elopement" confuses a lot of people, as the definition has changed a lot over the past few decades.

While to our grandparents, an "elopement" meant a cheap, cheesy, ill-planned, last-minute, shameful, unapproved way to get married...

THAT'S NOT WHAT ELOPING MEANS ANYMORE.

In its simplest sense, an elopement boils down a wedding back to what truly matters: the two of you, committing your lives to each other. It strips away all of the "stuff," the "fluff" the performance and production. An elopement is an intentionally small, intimate, meaningful, authentic wedding day that's a true reflection of your relationship—where the focus of the day is really about YOU TWO. It can look like just the two of you climbing a mountain and saying your vows at the top, inviting your immediate family to hear your vows by a waterfall in Iceland, or bringing your 20 closest friends to take a cable car up a mountain in Switzerland with you to celebrate you getting married.

THE BEST THING ABOUT ELOPING IS THAT THERE ARE NO RULES AND YOU CAN CREATE AN INTENTIONALLY INTIMATE WEDDING DAY THAT TRULY REFLECTS WHO YOU ARE.

Your elopement can be just the two of you, or you can have a few family members come along, or you can bring 20 of your closest friends and still call it an elopement.

We don't differentiate pricing based on how many people you have celebrating with you. As long as the focus of the day is about the two of you, and you're looking for a stress-free adventurous wedding experience, we'd love to be a part of your day as your elopement photographer & guide.

Do you want "just a photographer"?
Or a guide, planner, and best friend to help craft the most meaningful day of your life?

Carol and Antonio will come alongside you from the minute we start chatting about your dream elopement (the consult is free). That's when the magic begins... When we ask you deep questions about who you are as a couple, what's important to you, and what do you dream of experiencing on your wedding day?

YOUR ELOPEMENT DAY ISN'T JUST A CEREMONY & SOME PORTRAITS. IT'S THE ENTIRE EXPERIENCE.

Everything from waking up, eating breakfast, hopping in the Jeep with the top down, driving to the trailhead blasting your favorite tunes, getting your pack on with your wedding dress, clothes, and flowers - the journey to the top - every single step of the way. Saying your vows - putting a ring on your partner's finger - it's really here - it's really happening. Your first champagne toast - your first dance under the starlit sky - to reliving the day sitting by the campfire as you cuddle up under a blanket not wanting this moment to end.

We help you bring every detail to life to make your day far more than you ever imagined. That's how we are different. Because this day is all about YOU, and you deserve to experience it stress-free while we document the whole story.

THIS IS NOT YOUR TYPICAL, EXHAUSTING, AND STAGED PHOTO SESSION FULL OF FORCED SMILES AND FRUSTRATION.

NO, THIS IS WAY DIFFERENT.

If you've looked through our portfolio, blog, or Instagram, you have seen the raw, intimate, and playful moments we capture. Think those are forced poses? Nope. That's the beauty of our unique approach to capturing your entire day. Think of us as your "fly on the wall" documentary photographer who is there to capture YOU TWO being you and having your best day together.

There's no, "Ok lets step to another spot and have you look at the camera again & smile." We (Carol and Antonio) want to tell the whole story of your incredible wedding day, which is why we don't offer a few "quick pics" for elopements, you deserve more than that. This is how we capture photos and moments you'll love re-experiencing through your elopement images forever. If having all day coverage of your elopement hasn't crossed your mind, then flip through some of our albums or blog posts, and see which photos really speak to you. Don't you deserve to be able to look back on the full story of your elopement day?
